

Three Maps to Conscious Living

Vedic Astrology

Learn the planetary alignment at birth; how it affects you--strengths and weaknesses.

Enneagram of Personality

Discover who you think you are. Learn the triggers that take you out of the moment.

Wheel of Totality

Gain insight into blind spots, and areas of ignorance. What awareness do you lack?

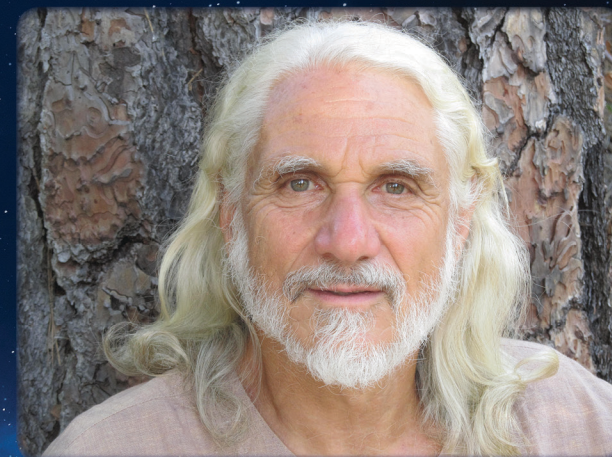

"When we try to pick out anything by itself, we find it hitched to everything else in the universe."

John Muir

It gives Indra Rinzler great joy to connect deeply with others to provide a bridge across that sometimes scary troubled waters of deep doubt and uncertainty. He helps people to find all the satisfaction that they look for in the outside world, inside themselves. He can help to make sense of the confusion in our lives and help to magnetize us to our true goals.

He has been a seeker and devotee on the spiritual path for more than 45 years. He began studying astrology in the early 1970's, first attracted to its numerical and mystical nature. In 1999 his life changed in many ways. First, he was introduced to the Enneagram and began an in-depth study of this fascinating modality. Intuitively he felt there to be a connection between Astrology and the Enneagram. Also then in 1999, he started spending half the year traveling the world buying hand made items – textiles, jewelry, spiritual items, for sale in his business selling handicrafts wholesale here in the US. Now retired from that business, he has great memories of sitting with awakened teachers and of his visits to many holy places – places of natural beauty and places of spiritual power, on all the continents of the world.

The whole time traveling he was observing his human brothers and sisters in all these different cultures. The truth became clear, we are not so different. Eventually as the reflections gained larger focus, he realized the immensity of the universe and it's natural connection to our Earth. It's such a dynamic time these first years in our new century, people all over the world are simultaneously feeling the call to wake up. Indra says with his natural enthusiasm, "Let's all join together in celebration."

What do we know in this life? How do we find answers?

Indra offers Life Readings based on ancient and sacred teachings. They are different from typical traditional astrology readings.

People are waking up to their true self all over the world right now. Waking up means to see beyond the story or ideas of who we think we are. In his readings, Indra, will help one to see and understand the stories that we believe about our self and he will give us specifics on how to live beyond them. Using Astrology and Enneagram we can see deep inside our self. Just by observing our behavior, the process of "letting go" can start happening immediately. Our lifestyle changes when we know what it is that we want to change and it becomes much easier to do. The reading can be intense and deep. To see and live who we truly are is the greatest gift of life.

His own awakening experiences enables Indra to take us very deep into our self. What he offers is a synthesis of ideas from East and West teachings from his decades of travels and study. For one who has been searching for answers and longing to live free of beliefs that don't serve our self, he can help.

The goal of his readings is to identify the patterns of our personality, through the energies we are imprinted with at birth. When we become aware of the personality's limitations, we can naturally awaken to who we really are. This will be a life changing experience.

Indra's gentle, loving nature and his contagious laughter made a very personal reading and look into hidden facets of this mind/body an enjoyable experience of sharing, not the isolating scary place that it can be. Thank you Indra.

Getting a reading with Indra was perhaps the best gift I have ever given myself. By giving me his unique insight into my personal story and astrology and the tools to dig further into what we discovered, I feel stronger and more capable than ever of uncovering the truth of who I really am and more importantly, who I am not.

Indra has great communication skills, he can explain what he sees in your charts or types very clearly, and he also listens which is so important. In the few weeks since I had my reading with Indra I am realizing more and more of the truth in the things he told me. He's also just a really cool guy to hang around with for a few hours

Thank you Indra for connecting me with the Enneagram. It has put things into place with so much clarity!

Mandira, Holland

Thank you Indra, I feel today was a catalyst that will set off a chain of events. I went to sit by the water today and reflected on what you told me. You told me exactly what I needed to hear.

Bianca :)

Thank you so much for the beautiful and informative session. I enjoyed your comments and insights!

I just want to take a moment Indra to thank you for being at the Fair today. It wasn't a chance meeting that we encountered ~ for we know that ;) The words, wisdom and knowledge that you shared with me today have really resonated with me. It is a joyous feeling to have words for me to understand the unvoiced stirrings within me. Thank you so very much..
