VortexHealing has been written about in various magazines. In Kindred Spirit, which is the most well-known new age magazine in England, editor Richard Beaumont wrote, “. . . a friend of mine, who had been playing the violin for twenty-five years, played a quick ditty on her violin and placed it into Ric Weinman’s open hands, asking him to be careful with her much-loved instrument. Two other friends were there, with myself as witnesses. [After Ric did a healing on it] . . . .She played it softly. Such an amazing difference could be heard by all of us. Deeper, richer, more subtle. I looked closely at my friend—her smile and the tears in her eyes confirmed the positive change in her cherished violin. . . . He also had a student of his . . . perform a similar “operation” on another friend’s guitar. Ric had proved beyond doubt that no matter how he may explain it, he had the power to change an instrument’s quality, and teach that skill to others.”

In To Your Health, Terry Andrews wrote (after participating in a Training) “I began to practice VortexHealing on family members and friends after the first workshop and I am impressed with the impact VortexHealing has on people. My mother experienced relief from the pain of osteoarthritis and a return of her strength. A friend’s persistent eye infection vanished overnight. Another friend received relief from an ear infection.”

What is VortexHealing® Divine Energy Healing?

VortexHealing is a powerful, holistic system of energetic healing from the Merlin lineage, which works solely with divine light and consciousness. It derives its name from a particular divine energy-vortex that is brought in through the heart and which becomes a vehicle for divine presence to manifest healing and transformation. The deep connection to this divine presence is what makes VortexHealing so unique, for the beginning practitioner can channel not just very powerful healing energies—the 49 unique forms of divine Vortex Light—but also the consciousness of the divine presence itself, and have all that be bridged deeply into whomever is being treated. This enables VortexHealing to perform extraordinary healings on the physical and emotional level as well as to release the deepest karmic issues we hold as human beings. They are transformed directly by divine consciousness, at all levels of our energy system & consciousness. At the same time, we are dropped deeper into our alignment with the Divine and True Self.

The power of VortexHealing can be demonstrated by using it on a 'non-living' musical instrument (where no placebo effect is possible): its sound is audibly transformed by a short VortexHealing. With just the first level of VortexHealing training, even the acupuncture system can be energized and cleared. And all VortexHealings are guided by the divine intelligence within the Vortex.

This divine presence, which is the source of all the grace and healing power of this lineage, refers to itself by the name 'Merlin', which is why this is called the Merlin lineage. The Merlin of legend was one of the human teachers of this lineage.

The Philosophy and Goals of VortexHealing®

The view of VortexHealing is that all of life is One (One Source, One Consciousness, One Divinity), expressing Itself as this amazing experience of creation. But our basic experience of life is that of being separate from everything else, which creates all kinds of issues and false identities that, over time (and lives), imprint or condition every level of our human system, and generate suffering. This web of this conditioning is almost unimaginably deep, completely distorting our experience of being human. It creates all kinds of emotional issues, mental attitudes, and blockages in our human energy system, which ultimately generates weakness and physical disease. The intent of VortexHealing is to release this conditioning on every level it is found, returning the person to emotional balance and energetic strength, so that health prevails.

But the goal of VortexHealing is also much larger than this. It is designed to create enough inner space from the webs of personal conditioning and enough self-awareness so that we can begin to awaken out of our conditioned web of reality to the freedom and Oneness that is our true nature. Although the tools of VortexHealing are designed to generate physical and emotional health (and they do so fantastically), on a deeper level they are designed to facilitate the deepest movement of healing that is possible, which is this kind of inner awakening to our true nature.

(Throughout the VortexHealing trainings, the divine source of the lineage is continually preparing the student to have this awakening, 'ripening' them towards it, so that by a certain level of training, the awakening can actually be implemented in a class that is specifically designed for this.)

How is VortexHealing® Divine Energy Healing taught?

The Basic Training is 5 days. But VortexHealing cannot simply be taught; it must be given by transmission. Through this transmission, the divine energy vortex, (called the 'Vortex Wheel,') comes into manifestation in the Heart. This is the link to the divine healing power used in the Basic Training. This divine gift must be received directly into the trainee's nervous system, energy system, and consciousness, so that a permanent connection is created. In the process, the student's entire energy system is put through an intense 'light acceleration' that restructures it to both hold and handle more light. This light-acceleration is permanent. (Only certified VortexHealing teachers are able to create the transmissions necessary to practice VortexHealing. A list of these teachers can be found at www.vortexhealing.org)
