“When one combines a meditative thought to an anchor object, which serves to organize and track it, the synchronized effect upon multiple levels of consciousness is powerful.”

—Jose Lopez

“Meditation is effective for each aspect of one’s well-being, but to direct them to agree with past successes, present reality, and future goals is even more powerful.”

—Jose Lopez

MotiCube is the effective use of an object with unique colors and symbols to aid in meditation. The symbols identifies your goals, then provides tools to help you achieve them and finally directs you into an imagery path that helps embed the goals and eliminate blockers.
